WORDS TO KNOW

CLICK TO REVEAL THE DEFINITIONS

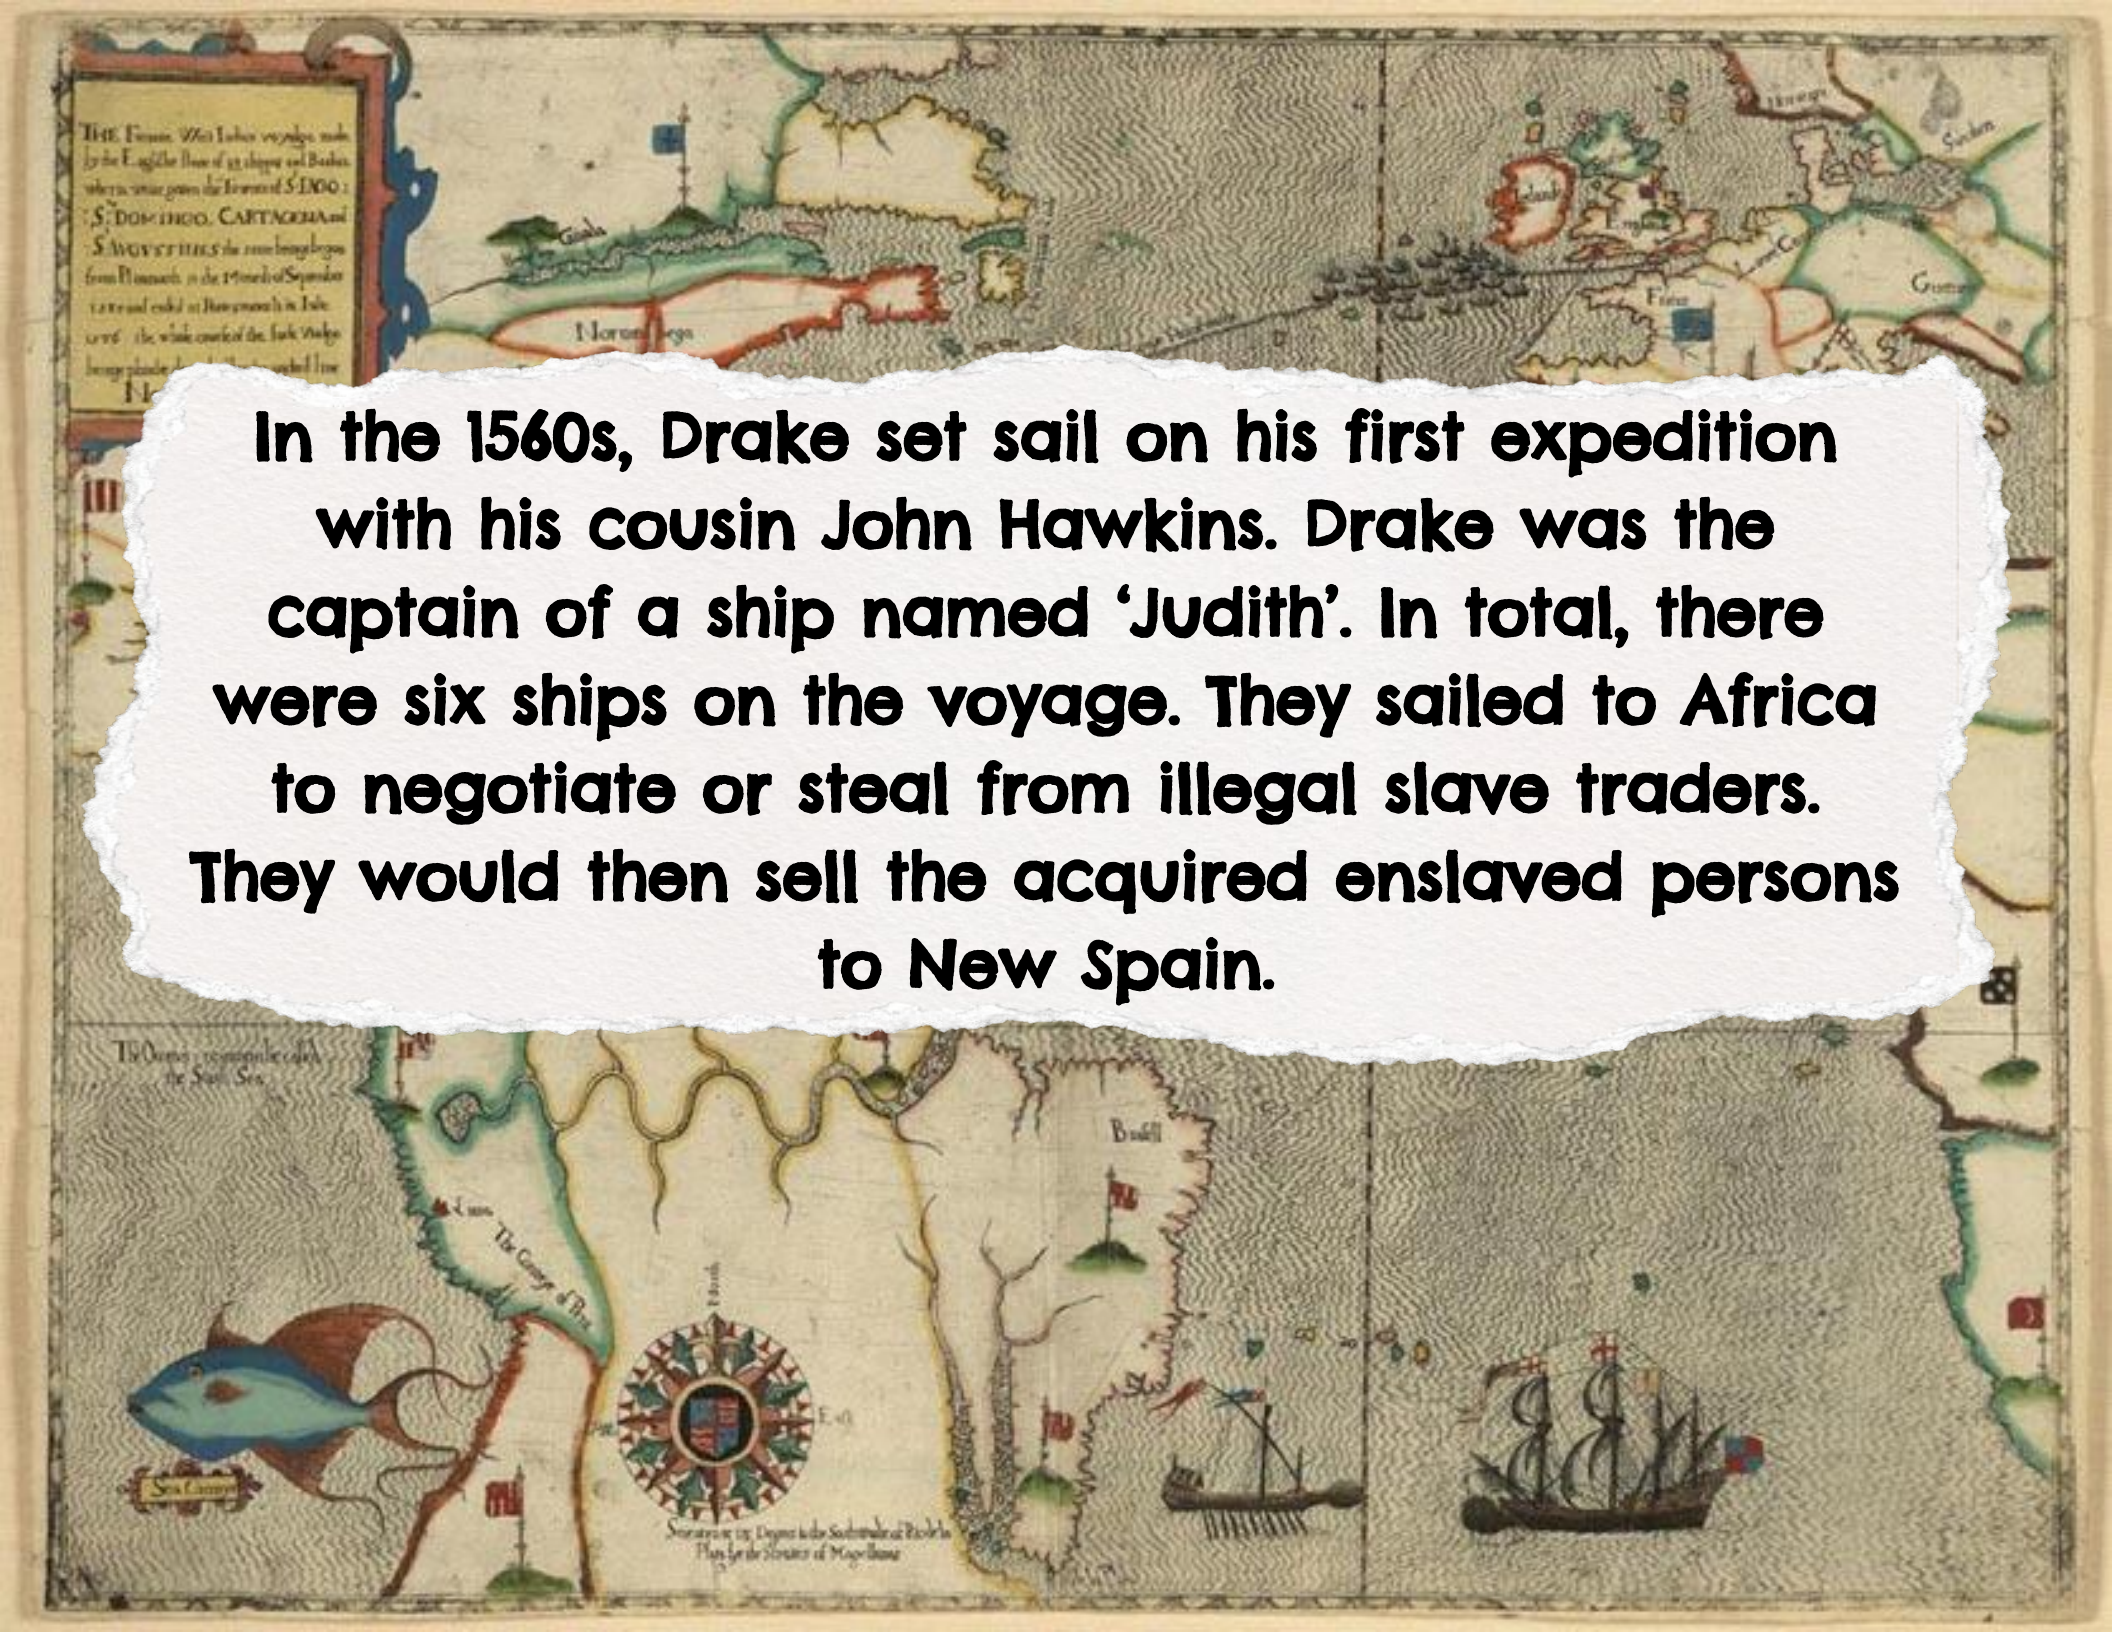

Francis Drake was born in Tavistock, England. Historians believe he was born between 1540 and 1544. His father, Edmund Drake, was a farmer and a minister for the English navy. The Drake family lived near the sea where Francis worked with a merchant sailor who traded goods with France.

Francis worked with a merchant sailor who traded goods with France.

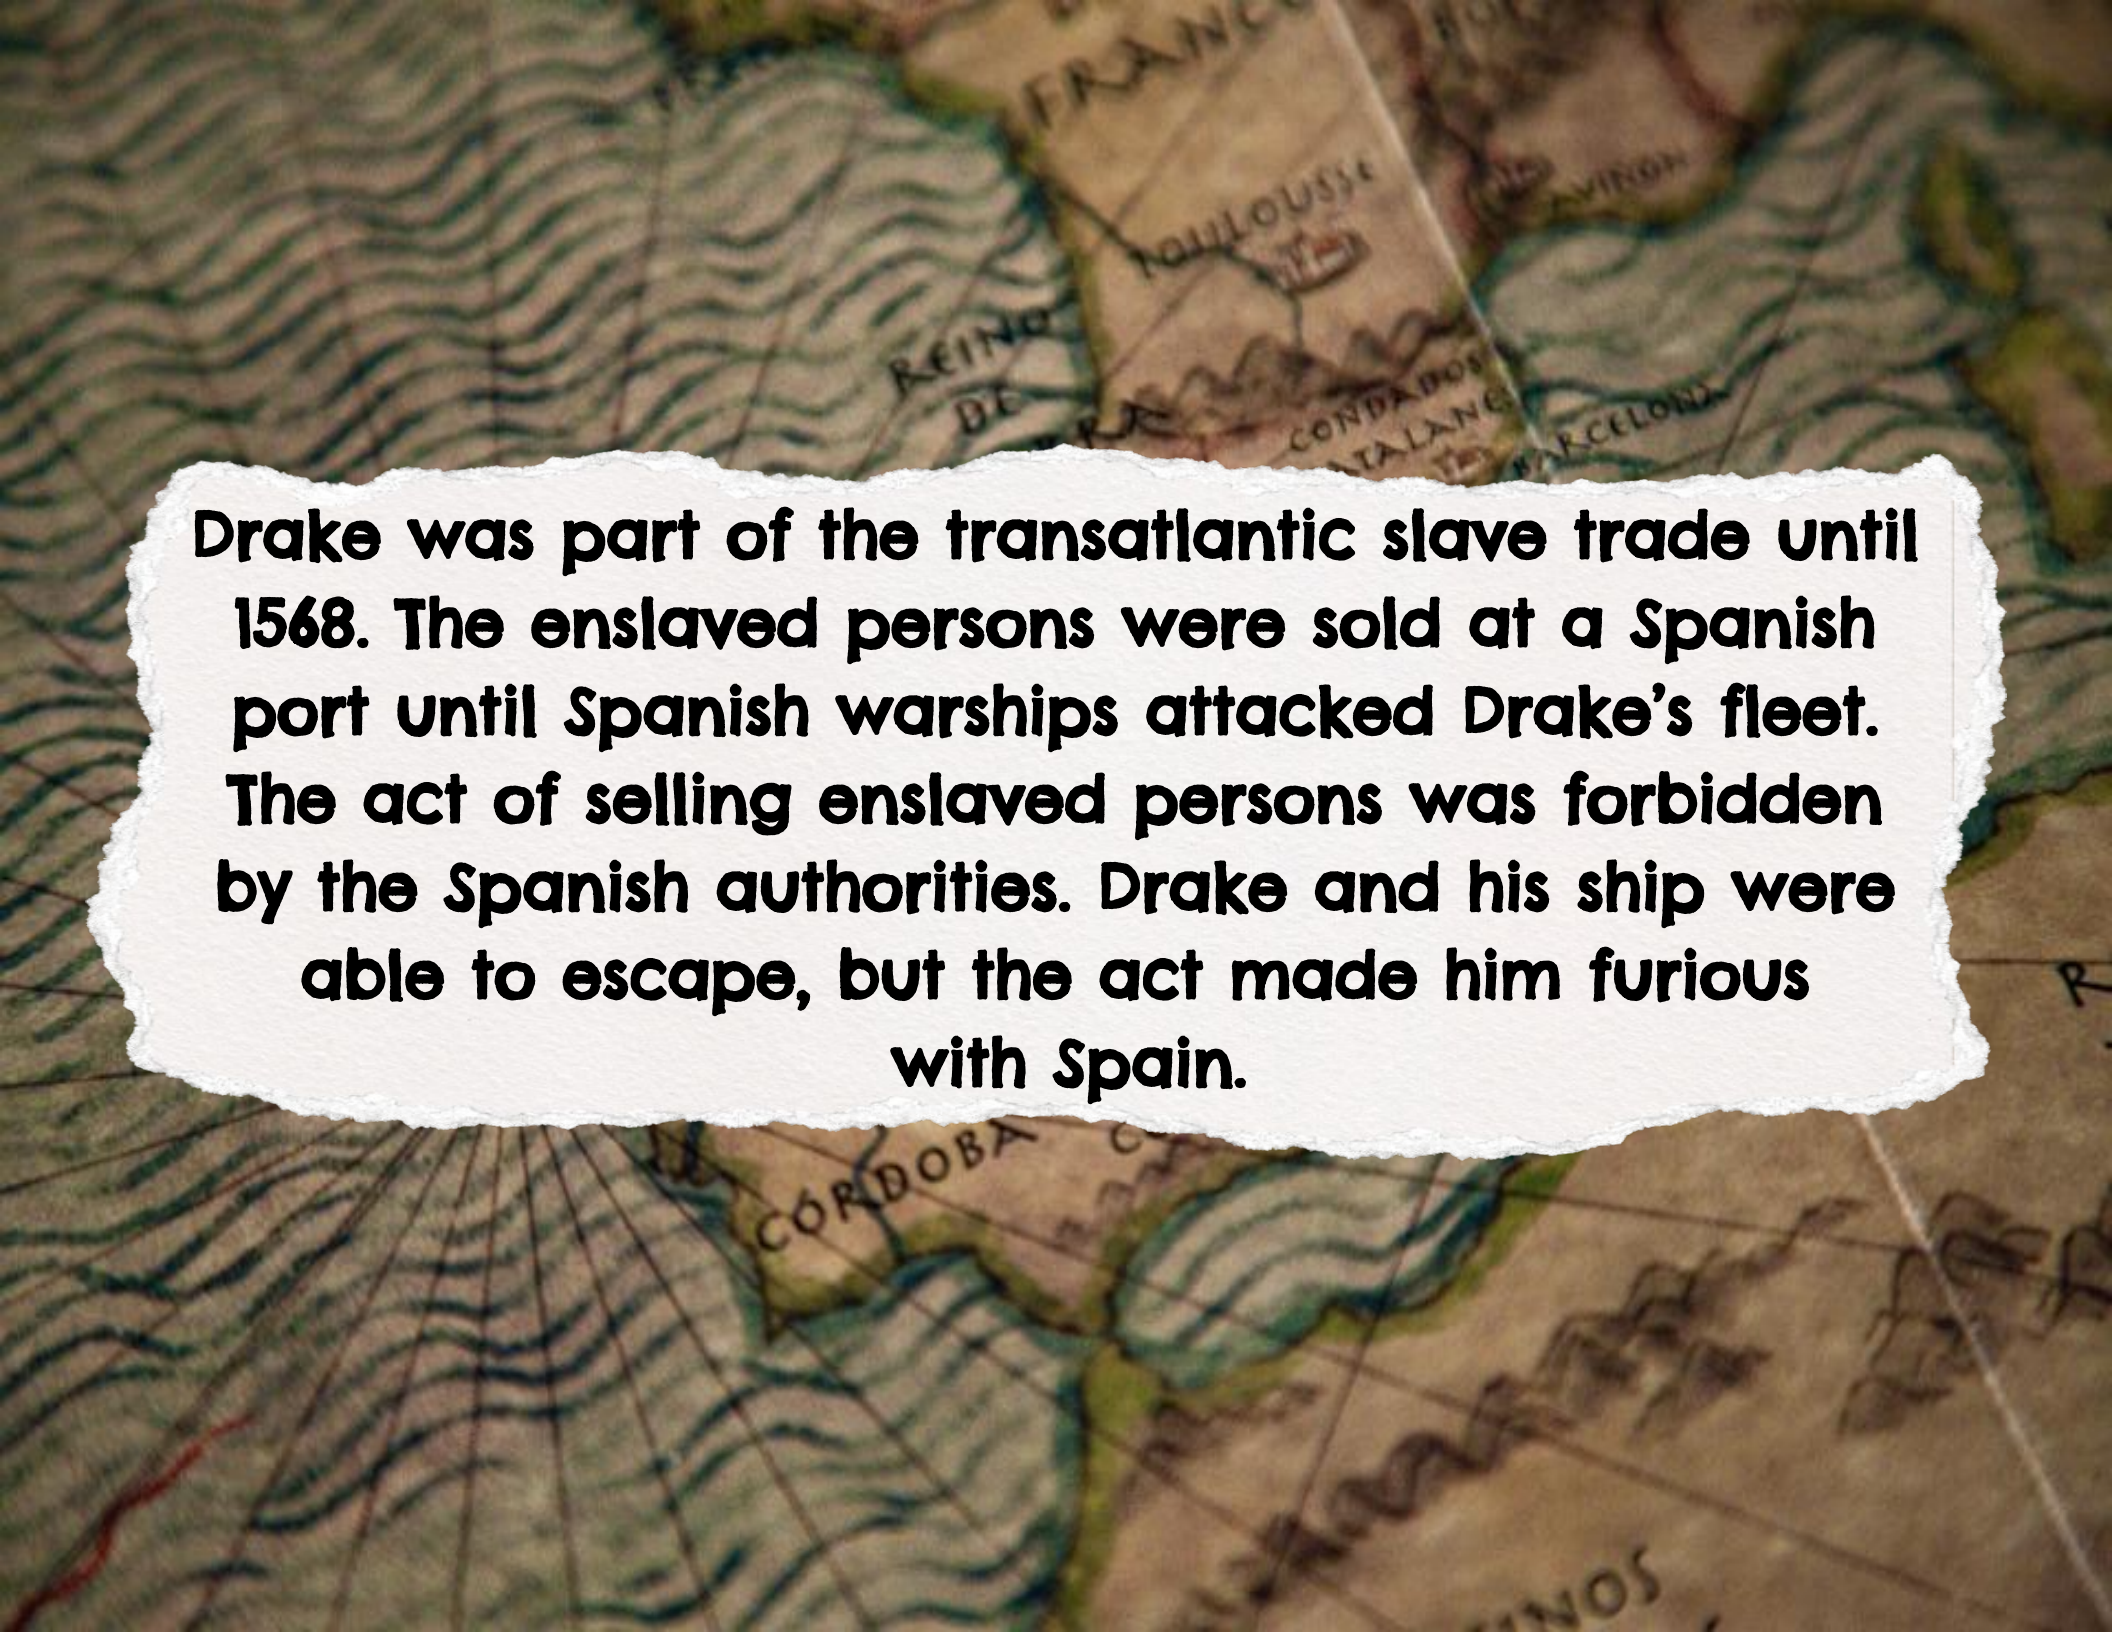

In the 1560s, Drake set sail on his first expedition with his cousin John Hawkins. Drake was the captain of a ship named 'Judith'. In total, there were six ships on the voyage. They sailed to Africa to negotiate or steal from illegal slave traders. They would then sell the acquired enslaved persons to New Spain.

In total, there were ___ ships on the voyage.

A. 4

B. 6

C. 8

Drake was part of the transatlantic slave trade until 1568. The enslaved persons were sold at a Spanish port until Spanish warships attacked Drake's fleet. The act of selling enslaved persons was forbidden by the Spanish authorities. Drake and his ship were able to escape, but the act made him furious with Spain.

Drake and his ship were not able to escape the attack.

