Clue # 1
DID YOU KNOW?
Lucas sold Pixar animation studio to Steve Jobs for $10 million.
George Lucas, a filmmaker and producer, was born in California in 1944. As a child, Lucas was obsessed with driving race cars. He was in a terrible car crash that almost killed him days before his high school graduation.
Lucas was denied a request to join the U.S. Air Force because he had too many speeding tickets. He was drafted to fight in the Vietnam War but was later rejected because he was diabetic. He diverted his attention to producing movies.
One of his earliest setbacks was with his first film THX 1138, which was a commercial failure and received mixed reviews upon its release. His movie Star Wars was presented to two different Hollywood studios and the Star Wars script was rejected by both companies. Still, that didn't stop Lucas, he continued to keep
