

SYSTEMS OF GOVERNMENT

DIGITAL ESCAPE™

HOW TO PLAY

Look for this icon to decode a puzzle. One puzzle per reading.

Look for this icon to read about the topic to find answers.

Look for this icon to answer three questions per reading.

Students will read 4 short passages, then answer questions related to each passage. After correctly answering the questions, they will be given a “clue.” They will then decode 4 puzzles to help them determine the final lock code.

There are 4 sets of color-coded activities. For example, there is a BLUE 4 icon for a reading passage, a BLUE question mark for questions related to the BLUE reading passage and a BLUE controller icon for a puzzle related to the reading.

Did you Know: Parliamentarianism is the dominant form of government in Europe.

- In a Parliamentary System of government, the Legislative Branch has authority over the Executive Branch. The Legislature is the part of government that makes the laws, also called Parliament. The Executive Branch is the part of government that enforces laws.
- The people choose the legislature through an election. The Executive Branch gets its power from the Legislature, which gets its power from the people. There is no clear-cut separation of powers between the Executive and Legislative branches.
- The Parliament chooses a Prime Minister as their political head of government. A Prime Minister has roles similar to a president but they are not elected by the citizens. Parliamentary governments usually have a king or queen as the ceremonial head of state. The king or queen does not make government decisions.
