READING #6
A theocracy is a type of government led by religious leaders. Those leaders set the rules for what religion you practice and what laws you follow. Theocracy is still practiced in Iran today.
READING #1
A government is a political system of rules that the people of a particular country or area must follow. There are many different types of governments throughout our world. A government usually, but not always, has a legislature, executive, and judiciary. The common aspect of any government is the obtaining of political power.
Governments create the laws and
