Printable directions

1. First, choose the 'topic' that you want to use and make copies for your students.
2. Next, choose which graphic organizer (pages 31 - 39) you would like to use with the passage. You can choose one or more or none at all! You could also simply choose text annotation found on page 40.
3. Determine how you want to use the activity: bellringers, RTI, stations, independent work, group discussion, read aloud etc.
4. Make sure the kids have highlighters or colored pencils for text marking: yellow, green, blue, pink (or use the quick jot worksheet without colors on page 42.)
5. Explain the text marking aspect and your expectations for the article that you choose. Go over expectations for defining high-level vocabulary words with context clues as well.
6. Discuss graphic organizer expectations. How many complete sentences? Are they looking up unknown words in the dictionary? Are you providing an example of topic sentences and supporting details? Do you need to review context clues?
