WORDS TO KNOW

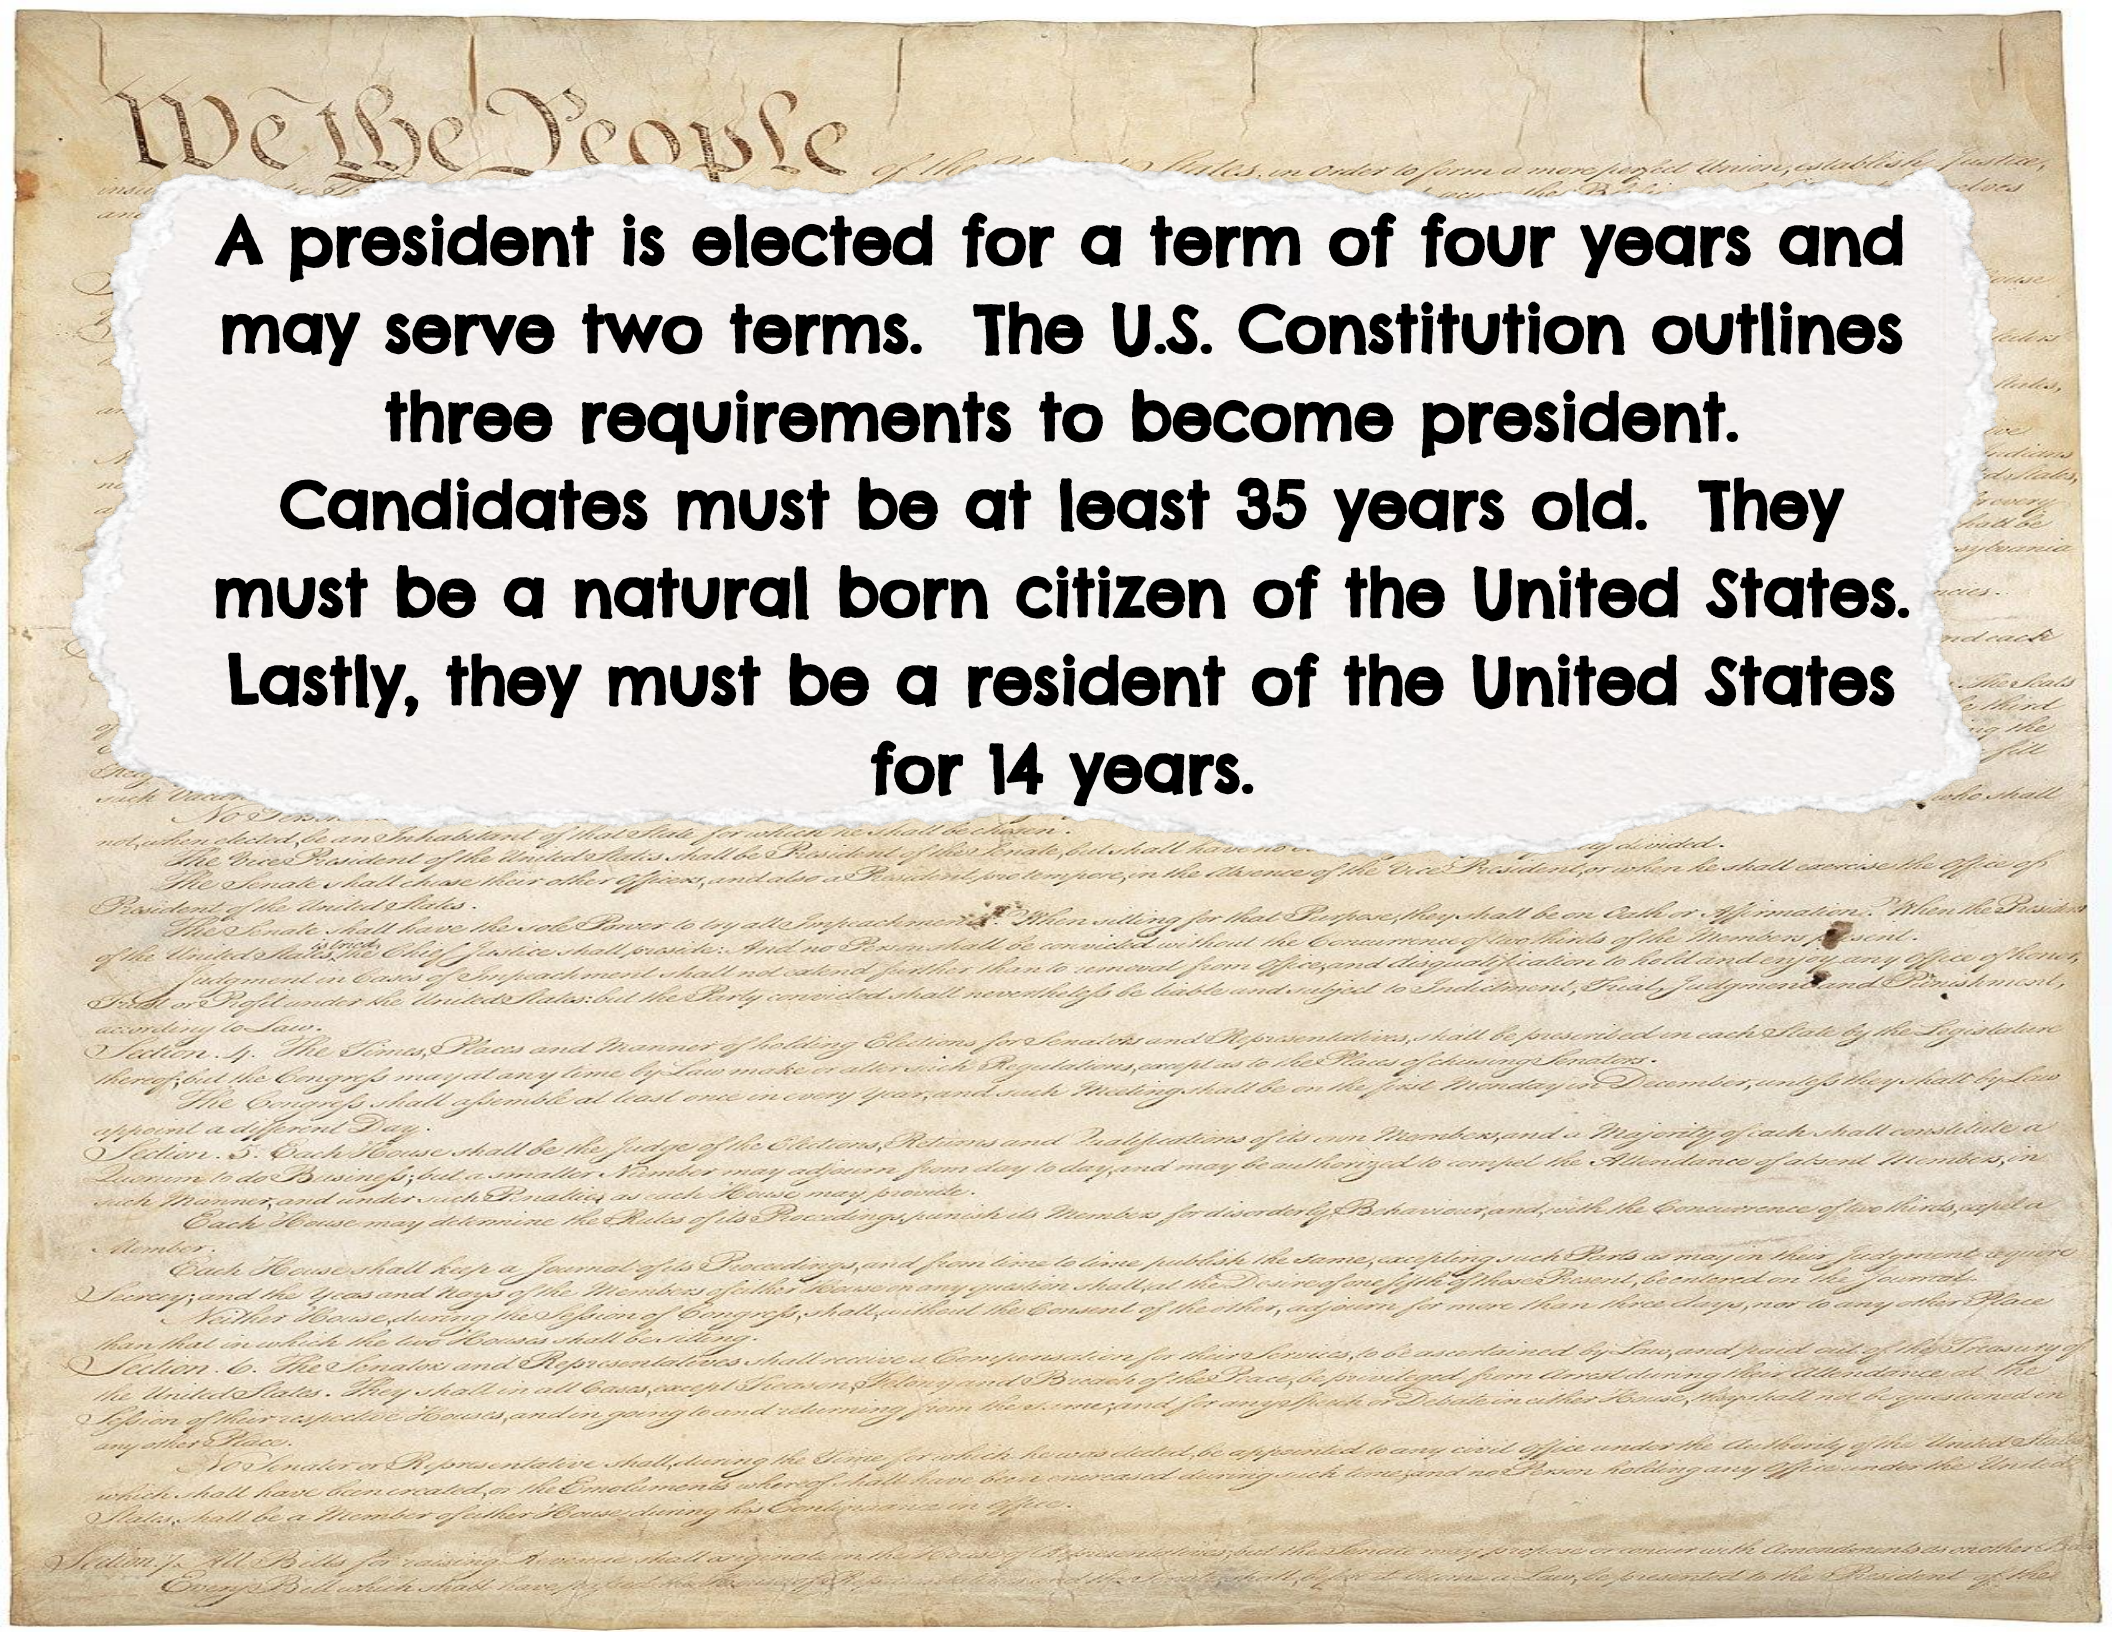

CLICK TO REVEAL THE DEFINITIONS

Presidential elections in the United States occur every four years on Election Day. Election Day is held the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.
STATION

Election Day is held the first Thursday after the first Monday in November.

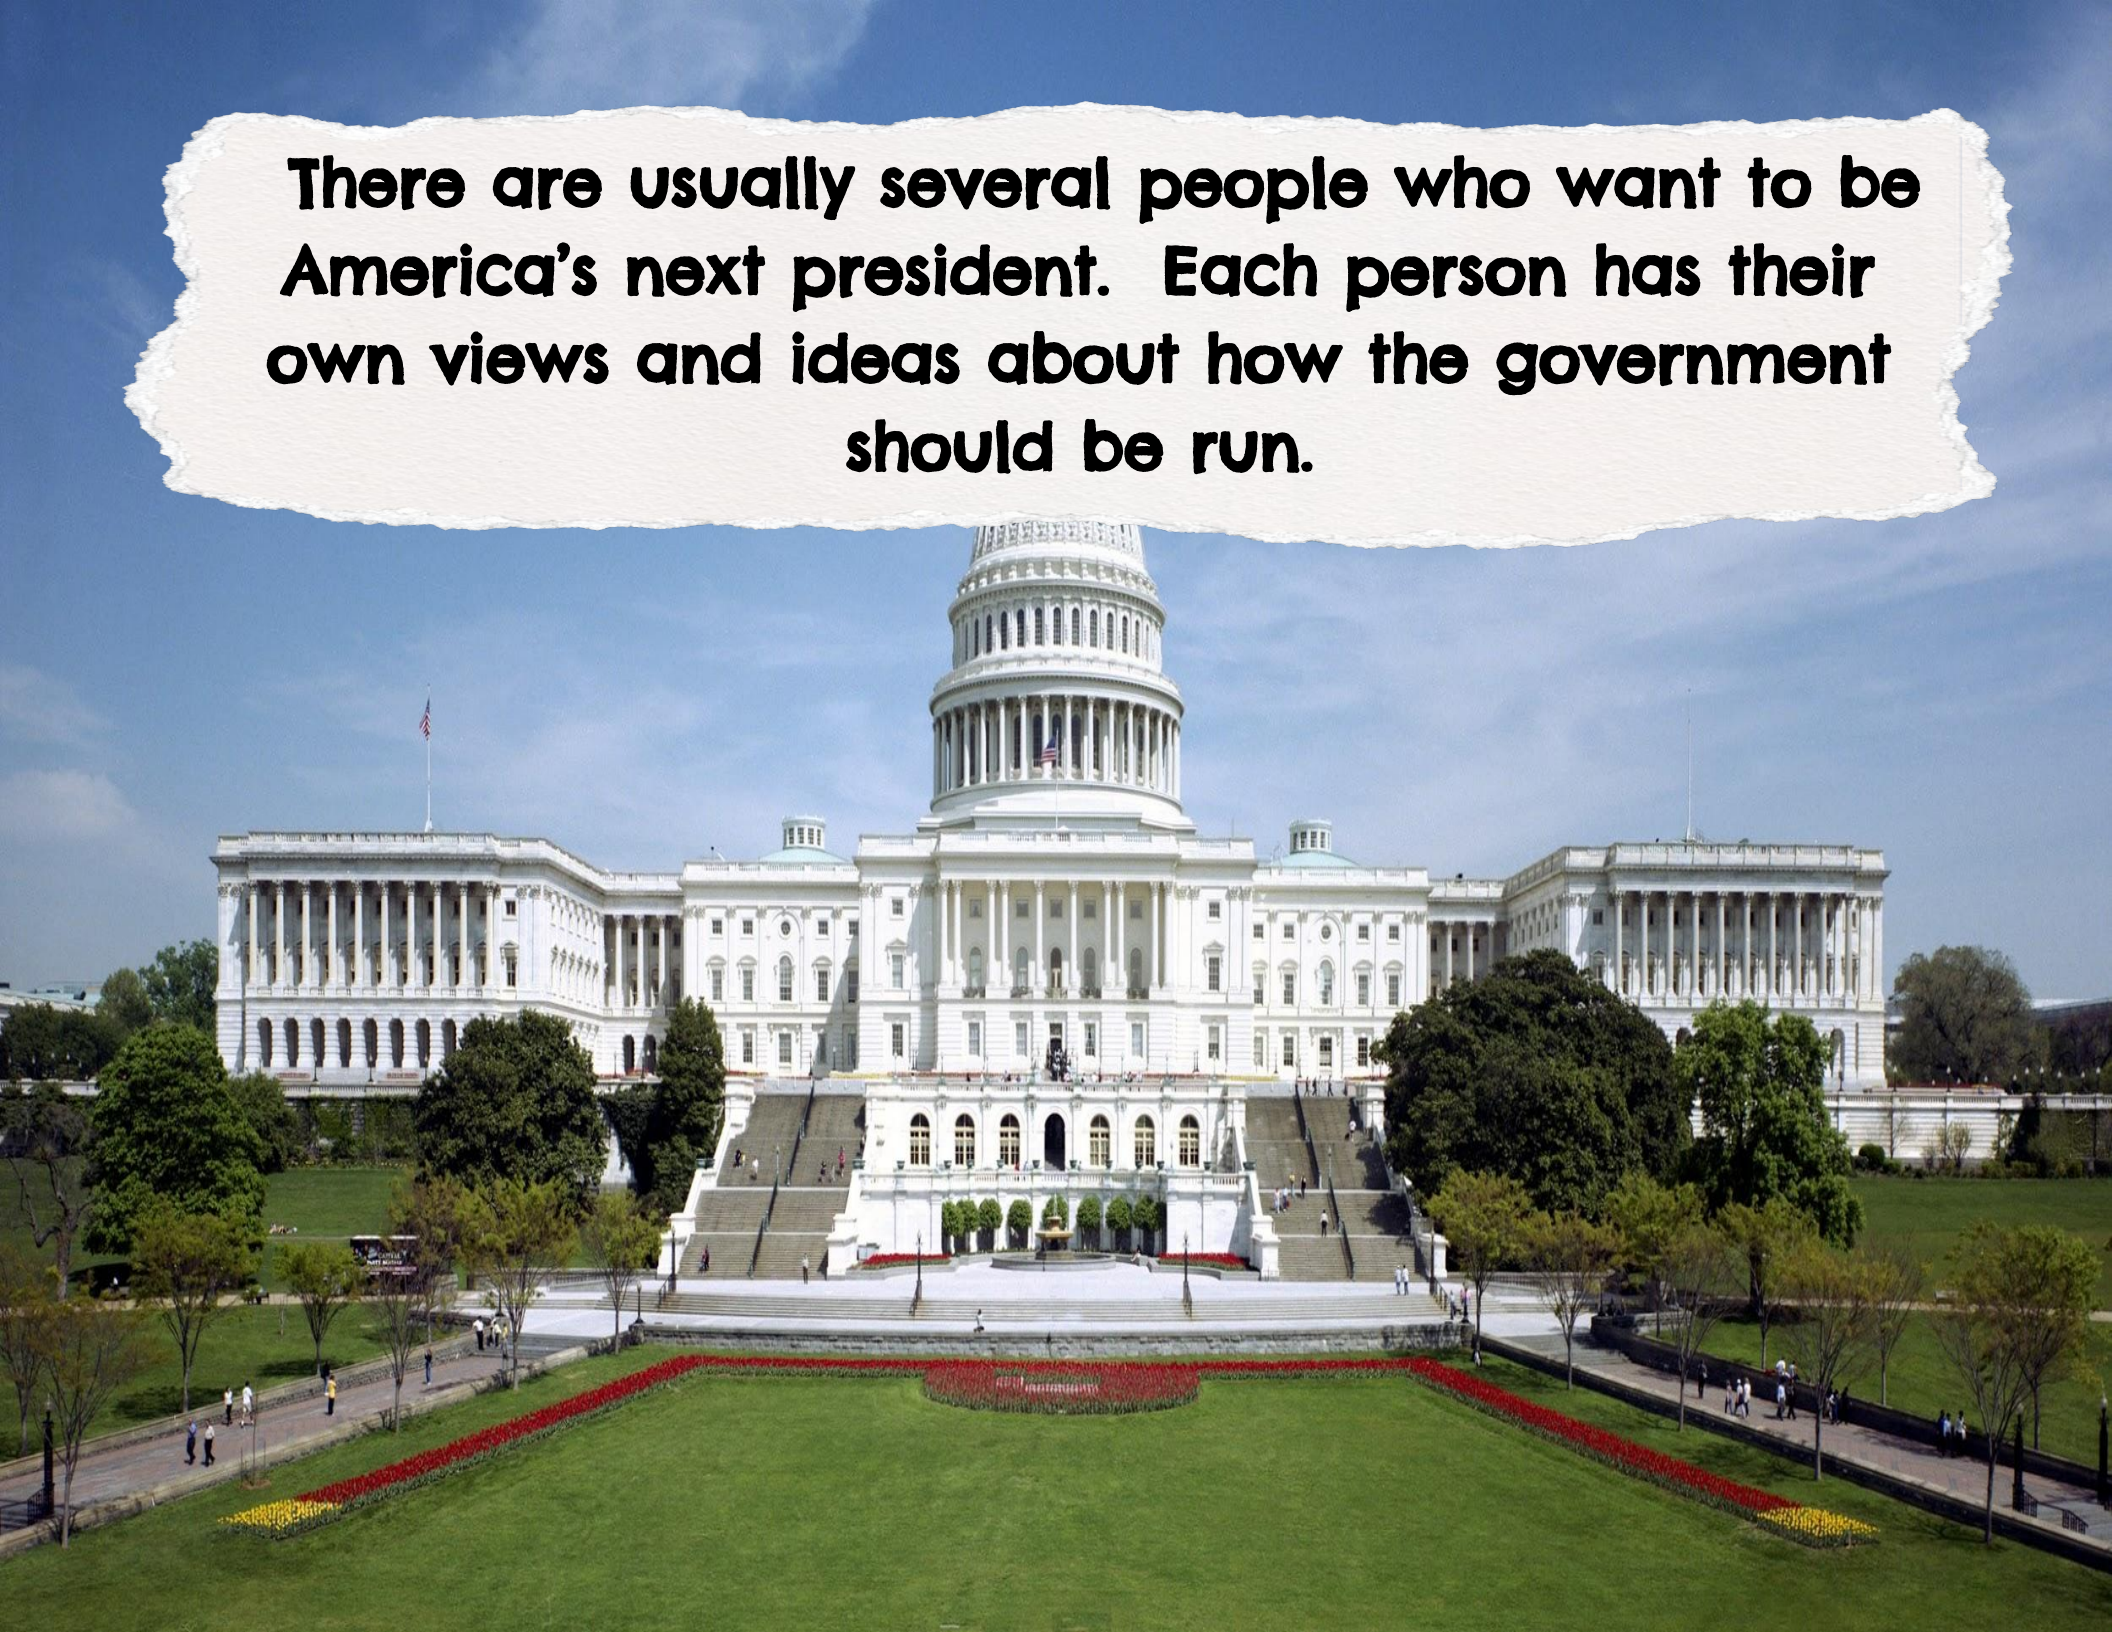

We the People
A president is elected for a term of four years and may serve two terms. The U.S. Constitution outlines three requirements to become president. Candidates must be at least 35 years old. They must be a natural born citizen of the United States. Lastly, they must be a resident of the United States for 14 years.

How many requirements to become president are outlined in the Constitution?

A. 2

B. 3

C. 4

There are usually several people who want to be America's next president. Each person has their own views and ideas about how the government should be run.

Each person has their own views and ideas about how the government should be run.

